

Nay to relaxation of ownership regulations. The decade long experiment has gone awry. Lets reverse the last decision and return diversity and local programming to the airwaves in the publics interest. Where it was originally intended to be.